

Dedicated to
Jack Hall & His Best Friend Elmo.

I met Jack when I was not even a year old. I was so tiny, I was able to fit in the palm of his hand and he only said one word, "sold!"

At age 6, fireworks scared me half to death. Once they started to pop and bang in the sky, Jack would be there to help me catch my breath.

By age 7, I had so many toys, but there was only one I truly cared about; It was a big brown dog named Scout.

Jack and Elmo are real which makes all these wonderful stories real as well. We love sharing this special dog's life.

The stories over the years are easy to relate to because most of us have had a dog that lived a long and full life.

But in reality a dog's life is never long enough and in the end we are just so thankful for the memories we have of our dear friends.
